

Four Tenants to Open at CocoWalk in Miami's Coconut Grove Neighborhood

The Key Club, a restaurant by Ariete Hospitality Group, Narbona Natural Food & Farm Market and Cinépolis are set to open at CocoWalk in Miami's Coconut Grove district.

Miami — Four new dining concepts and retailers are set to open at CocoWalk, a 150,000-square-foot mixed-use project in Miami's Coconut Grove district. The development's ownership group includes Federal Realty Investment Trust, The Comras Co. and Grass River Property.

New openings will include The Key Club restaurant; an unnamed restaurant by Ariete Hospitality Group; an 8,253-square-foot Narbona Natural Food & Farm Market; and Cinépolis. Existing tenants at the property include Planta Queen, Mister 01 Extraordinary Pizza, Sweetgreen, Salt & Straw, Bluemercury, Edward Beiner, The Spot Barbershop and School of Rock.

In August of last year, the owners of CocoWalk announced other planned tenants including GlossLab, a membership-based nail studio; Infinity, a fitness studio; Skin Lab by Barba Skin Clinic; and 3D Brow Studio, a beauty bar specializing in curating eyebrows.
