

June 11, 2022

UMV: 66.6K

Pride Parades, Festivals & Exhibits

Posted by: Patti Roth

Festive Pride parades, street fairs and displays offer fun on land in South Florida — and in the water.

Lots of Pride events and displays for Pride Month in June are free, or are relatively inexpensive. Occasionally you'll save some dough if you purchase tickets prior to the event.

Plenty of LGBTQ Pride events and displays in South Florida are family friendly. Please return to this feature as other events are added.

Pride Parade, Festivals & Displays in South Florida include:

Other events in South Florida

Miami

Loud & Proud for PRIDE features a Drag Queen bar serving drinks 5 p.m. – 9 p.m. June 11 at CocoWalk Plaza, 3015 Grand Ave. 33133. Donations accepted for beverages. Event includes performances featuring drag queens Angie Ovahnness and Ketta Mina. For the event, local artist Julija Kempf is painting the panther at the entrance in a Pride design. Information is online.