

CocoWalk Presents: Loud and Proud for PRIDE

CocoWalk in Miami's Coconut Grove is partnering with local LGBTQ+ organization Pridelines to kick off National Pride Month in June with a community celebration at the Plaza featuring a live DJ, appearances and performances by several of Miami's beloved drag queens, including Angie Ovahnness and Ketta Mina, and a pop-up bar curated and sponsored by Tito's Handmade Vodka and PLANTA Queen. As part of the celebration, the property's signature panther at the entrance will be painted in a Pride design by local artist Julija Kempf. All proceeds from the pop-up bar will benefit Pridelines, a local organization rooted in the mission to support, educate and empower South Florida's lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and questioning (LGBTQ) youth and community in safe and diverse spaces to promote dialogue, wellness, and to foster social change. Other CocoWalk tenant activations in support of Pride on June 4th include women's athletic wear retailer FP Movement hosting a Pride-inspired 5K run at 8 a.m., The Key Club, Botanico Gin & Cookhouse and Sushi Garage creating specialty cocktails and donating a percentage of the proceeds to Pridelines, and Duck N' Sum serving select complimentary dishes with suggested donations going to the organization. Miami florist The Flora Buds will also sell Pride-themed flower bundles, with donations going to Pridelines.
