Miami is one lucky queer city. We get our big citywide Pride celebration in April, with the annual Miami Beach Pride Parade and surrounding events and then we get a second opportunity to let our rainbow flags fly in June when the whole country comes together to honor our LGBTQ+ communities. There's a lot going on this month, from the return of Wynwood Pride to epic drag brunches in Miami to diva-led bingo parties and drinks specials all in honor of Pride. With so many celebrations to get to, we'll just jump right in.

Get Loud & Proud at Cocowalk

The Coconut Grove outdoor shopping plaza puts on a Pride celebration for the whole community. Expect DJ tunes, performances by local queens Angie Ovahnness and Ketta Mina, a pop-up bar by Tito's vodka and a rainbow-themed makeover of the property's signature panther by Miami artist Julija Kempf. It all goes down on June 11 from 5pm to 9pm.
